Art Society Announces Virtual Art Show

By Town-Crier Editor - March 25, 2021

The Wellington Art Society will present "Vibrance," a juried virtual art show scheduled from April 2 to June 2. This exhibit features 20 artists and 65 original works of art by members, including painting, photography, drawing, mixed media and more. All artwork is for sale, and a portion of the proceeds goes toward the group's scholarship fund and outreach programs.

Awards will be presented by distinguished judge Chris Kling at a Zoom awards ceremony and reception on Wednesday, April 28 at 7 p.m. The public is invited to this free event. Contact presidentofwas@gmail.com for the Zoom link.

In addition, there will be a special prize awarded to one of the exhibiting artists based on a random drawing. The prize is a one-hour consultation with Rickie Leiter of The Rickie Report.

The Wellington Art Society is delighted to have Chris Kling, an award-winning artist, instructor and gallery owner, as the judge for Vibrance. She is represented by Palm City Art & Frame and is the owner of Kling Gallery, Wine & Decor of Stuart. She is also on the faculty of the Lighthouse Art Center in Tequesta.

The 20 artists that will be exhibiting are: Victoria Albrecht, Heather Bergstrom, David Ciofalo, Donna Donelan, Sandra Encaoua, Del Foxton, Marcia Greene, Jean Howard, Laura Jaffe, Liza Karsai, Sharon Kleiman, Vivian Koppelman, Lou Ann LaBohn, Rachael Laub, Joanne MacLeod, Joseph Marcou, Charles Moses, Susan Oakes, Mauricio Perry and Nancy Tilles.

Vibrance Virtual Art Show is a free online event, which will be presented through Kunstmatrix, which is an innovative platform that enables artists to create beautiful and realistic 3D versions of their artwork, displayed in a sophisticated virtual exhibition space. Visitors can view artwork one of several ways, including moving themselves around the exhibit using the arrows that appear on screen or by using the cursor. A guided tour is also available as an option.
